

which we doubt not, or the Journal's account them, all are agreed that a terrible and horrible scene of burning and massacre has occurred. We have had another experiment of the work of popular government. So far as your city is concerned, it is a gloomy and discouraging experience to the friends of freedom. Indeed this instance, or several such instances, should not cause us to despair. But who will say that the presence such an organized mob of bullies generally of the State, armed with loaded canes, and wearing legal votes; and incited to drive them in to sink law in the hearts of its friends? Who not despair of a constitutional government, the least of mankind override its authority mock its provisions? The despotism of a colossal-fung rabble, is the most odious of all government. Woeable, for the free. We are proud by free principles. But there is a principle of self-preservation greater than the love of life itself. We had rather be secure than to be free. Here, in every country and in every age, when regular and constituted governments have been set on foot, the tyrannical passions of men have been the cause of tyranny of mobs, and bullies, and fire, and men have followed, men have looked round for a deliverer; and lighting upon some ambitious leader, they have placed a crown on his head, and set him on his throne, and then they have bowed down and turn his iron heel on the neck of the wretched rabble.

Now, Messrs. Editors, whenever the course of your grand system is evidently in the wrong, the American people will put up with the resort of all nations. Men who have power do not wish it turned by a man who is poor. They wish to possess and enjoy it. And if this can be done, they will not care to give up their political privileges to an arbitrary power that he may give them security in turn.

But let us not despair. Let us still think

[illegible]

These evils, especially in our large towns, the free press should remove. We should not mean our liberties by so mean a standard as dollars and cents. We should be prepared to pay much, and have twice as many eyes upon us, without we obtain security, a peaceable and election, and a fair, unbiased vote. A vast army of men, vying with each other, has in its bosom the seeds of anarchy and anarchy. Let our law makers apply themselves, and they do much to banish violence, and restore good feeling and public confidence.

There is one other matter connected with the press, which I will allude to. It is the duty of the public press. What shall we say of an editor of a great journal, whose writings are such applause with a hideous, burning anarchy? His person is reviled with "accusations" it is true, but it is not the duty of the press to vilify mankind. It should take a conservative stand, and inculcate obedience in all things to existing laws. When an editor forgets this, he is unworthy of his office. He should mean men, fanatics and the like, and not vilify, it is the duty of all good men to cease patronage, and encourages those only who will shoulder at receiving the coarse plaudits and bloody "acclamations" of a street rabble.

CAMP

---

Removal.

HUTCHINGS & CO. HAVE removed their Exchange and Banking Office to the new Building, corner of Main and Bullitt streets.

---

FIVE DOLLARS REWARD.

STRAYED FROM THE SUBS a horse, on the 18th instants, a small White and Yellow Saddle Horse, with a white hack, ears marked, or tail about 7 feet long. He was last seen in the neighborhood of Harrod's creek. Any one finding him, please the above reward. W. F. TALLEY my self. Cor. Market & Third

---

1555. SUMMER ARRANGEMENT.

FOR THE EAST!

VIA THE

Jeffersonville and Ohio and Mississippi Railroad.

U. S. Mail Line Steamers Jack Strader

AND THE
CINCINNATI, HAMILTON, AND DAYTON RAILROAD!!!

Expeditions Round

TO NEW YORK, BOSTON A

Philadelphia via Dayton & Clyde to Cleveland direct—making the same connections as are made by other lines out of Cincinnati—now made possible.

No other line from Cincinnati makes quicker time over certain connections to the East, and none so direct from the East by day and night combination route.

The time on the Cincinnati, Hamilton, and Dayton line from Cincinnati to New York is 24 hours, 10 minutes. For three-fourths of the distance this is the shortest time made by any line, and it is so certain that it can be run at high speed with greater safety and easier costs.

The first train leaving Cincinnati, after the arrival of the Louisville Morning Cars, is on the Cincinnati, Hamilton, and Dayton line. The Dayton cars have one hundred yards space, and baggage can be transferred from one road to the other, avoiding the usual delay of transferring baggage to and from the cars.

Passengers, if they prefer it, can go to a hotel for breakfast, and on their return, get their baggage and check their baggage through.

Passengers for Cincinnati are detained half an hour at Crestline, ample time for dinner, without an extra day's delay.

Baggage changes of Passenger Cars as by notice.

Baggage checked through to Dunkirk, Buffalo and Pittsburg.

Passengers by the Cleveland, A. M., Train, Cincinnati, leave for Dayton Railroad, at 10:30 a. m. and dine the following day in New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore.

From Cincinnati to New York 304 hours;

To Philadelphia 164 hours;

To Baltimore 104 hours;

To Albany 82 hours;

To Boston in 24 hours;

To Buffalo in 16 hours;

To Dunkirk in 104 hours;

To Pittsburg in 104 hours;

To Baltimore in 20 hours.

No other line from Cincinnati makes quicker time to the East, and none so quick to the West, by rail or half-rails.

LEAVING CINCINNATI.

FAST TRAIN—Cleveland, Buffalo and Pittsburg, leave, at 6 o'clock A. M. for Dayton, Clyde, Cleveland, Buffalo, Pittsburg, and New York, and connect at Forest for Crestline, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Baltimore and New York.

FAST TRAIN—Leave Cincinnati at 10:30 a. m. and make close connection with Lake Shore Express, leaving at 12:30 p. m. for Cleveland, Buffalo and Pittsburg, connecting with Fast Express Train East.

Express, at 6 o'clock a. m. for Cleveland, Du Buffalo, Albany, New York, Boston, Providence and Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Wash
City, for Detroit, and at Cleveland with steamers for Buffalo, Albany, New York, Boston, Providence loading. Their train stops at all Stations.

WHEEL TRAINS—Cleveland Night Express, at 6
P. M. for Buffalo, Albany, New York, Boston,
New York and Boston.

Leave from Louisville as follows by any other East.

CAUTION.

The traveling public are cautioned against the statements made in the advertisements of the latter and the National Express Company, among the many others, that the Louisville and Nashville Express the East; that there is less certainty of connection at Louisville than at any other place, and that the changes of cars on the Pittsburgh Express by way then the other.

We hereby promise that these misrepresenta tions should be corrected; but they are still retained and the Louisville and Nashville Express Company sary.

HENRY O. AMES, Sup't. C. & T. R. R.
B. M. PHILLIPS, Sup't. C. & T. R. R.
J. F. OSBORN, Pres. N. Y. & N. E. R. R.
at the office of the Louisville and Nashville Express at the office of the Louisville and Nashville Express, No. 30
St. Louis, Mo. P. M. 1877. No. 22, Wall Street

The Omnibus Line will call for passengers
ing their names at the above offices.

ly is dly
ICE!! ICE!! ICE!!! FAMIL
and Steamboats supplied with a prime arti
River Ice, by calling at the subscriber's office, W of Third, second door from the corner of Water and by Capt. George Karty.
Prompt attention is given in supplying private ice (apoc) JOHN G

Should any carrier fail to deliver the Democrat promptly, word left at the office will remedy the neglect.

Travellers will please hand in their favors as early as they conveniently can, during the day.

In all cases of Dyspepsia, Hurler's Sarsaparilla will be found a never-failing remedy. Try it.

We call the attention of sheep raisers to the advertisement of PREMIERS offered by Thomas McDonald and Isaac Limith.

Subscribers changing their residences will please leave word at the office, so that our carriers may find them promptly.

Our readers will find a choice variety of reading upon the first and fourth pages.

CORRECTION.—Mr. A. Stinson says he was not shot Saturday evening, when hunting for the Irishman that killed Medley, but he don't deny belonging to one of those brave parties.

Messrs. Chapman & Moore will open their school on Monday, 3d of September next. These gentlemen stand deservedly high as teachers. Read their card for terms, etc.

The Exhibition tickets for ladies, to which members are entitled, are now ready, and can be obtained at the Actuary upon application at the office of the Institute.

FIGHTING.—A couple of Irishmen were fighting last evening in the upper end of town, when we were informed, a man named Floyd pitched into one of them and beat him nearly to death. There was also some fighting at the upper end of Jefferson street, but we didn't learn the particulars.

BOTS, BE CAREFUL.—Yesterday afternoon, a boy about 15 years old was swinging in the open lot, between Fifth and Sixth and Main and Water, when he was thrown from the swing; his face was very much bruised, and one wrist dislocated. He may have sustained other injuries, although we did not observe any.

KILLED.—Yesterday afternoon, at the corner of Tenth and Green, the driver of a loaded cart fell from his seat, when the wheel passed directly over his face, terribly crushing the skull, and killing him almost instantly. His name is Michael Connors, said to be asleep—about 18 or 19 years old.

BOOKS, PERIODICALS, &c.—Mr. C. D. Kirk, under Mozart Hall, keeps constantly for sale the best kind of blank books, the most interesting historical, biographical, philosophical and general reading—the magazines of the day, school books, for boys and girls, story books for the little ones, and almost everything else that one expects to find in a book-store. Under Mozart Hall.

Our Commercial Reports.

We furnish our readers with full and authentic commercial reports of the Louisville markets, domestic and foreign, together with a great deal of authentic and reliable commercial information, to be found nowhere else in Louisville. Our country readers may at all times place the most implicit confidence in our commercial.

BRUTAL.—We have some of the most efficient police the world ever saw. They can, without difficulty, catch an Irishman when he is hunting a watchman to give himself up, and they can beat his brains nearly out for being an Irishman. One of them did this to Hendgens, who was hunting Gilmore to give himself up, for killing Medley. If he had desired to escape, he could easily have done it, for he had three or four hours' time before he was arrested.

Police Court.

HON. GEO. W. JOHNSON, JUDGE.

Monday, August 20th, 1895.

W. W. Harney was admitted and sworn as an attorney.

Joe Cameron was sent to Lexington as a lunatic. Michael Hargaden, for killing Medley. Committed to answer at the next term of the Jefferson Circuit Court.

Margaret Gibbons, Michael Carroll, and James Gibbons, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Bail of Gibbons in $200 for three months, others discharged.

Terry Sullivan and Joe Bennett, for fighting. Bail in $200 each for three months.

Andrew Klotz, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Bail in $200 for three months.

Eliza Ford and Louis Quinn, same charge. Bail of Quinn in $200, and of Eliza in $100, for three months.

Joe Mitchell, same charge. In the habit of whipping women. Bail in $200 for four months.

Davis Russ, same charge. Bail in $200 for six months.

City of Jno. Gibbons, selling liquor on Sunday. Fined $5.

Thos. D. M., supported friend. Miss Sarah Ann Hewitt stated that she boarded at Mr. Reese's. Accused boarded with her, and was charged with a button on his pants, and while she was doing this he managed to put a ring of her finger.

She asked him then and repeatedly afterwards for the ring and he finally gave it up.

Mr. Reese said that he came to his house to board. He told him his trunk was at New Albany. He stated there a few days without paying his bill. He next went to Gathervin's, but Gathervin's previous actions, made him pay him. He brought a woman of bad character to Gathervin's. He told officer Hamilton that he was from Pittsfield, Massachusetts, and had his trunk at Mrs. Evert's. He told other officers that he came here with a lecturer and stopped at Owen's Hotel.

Mr. Baird appeared as counsel for M. He said that his client was out of money. He had sent for his trunk from Mrs. Evert's and got it. Bail in $200 for three months.

Charles W. Powers, alias Dubois, alias Gilder-see, a race-rider, obtaining money under false pretenses. Came to C. Schaefer's and took board there. Gave Schaefer two checks, each purporting to be for $1,000, to take care of. Schaefer put the checks away without looking at them. Powers then borrowed $500 of Schaefer and gave him receipt for it. Schaefer then examined the checks, of which the following is a copy, and found them worthless:

Exchange for $1,000. Louisville Bank—First of Exchange (second unpaid) pay to the order of Charles W. Powers sixteen hundred dollars, value received, and charge the same to account.

PHILIPS & CO. PHILIP & PORTERFIELD.

To Messrs. Williams, Phillips & Co., New Orleans.

Schaefer found Powers yesterday morning on the boat. He had paid his passage to Cincinnati. Officers Ray and Baker arrested him. He had a lot of blank checks of the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Chas. Powers, larceny. Peter Kennedy was on a spree with Powers on Saturday night. Had $110 in his trunk at Schaefer's on Saturday. On Sunday found his trunk and carpet bag, key gone. Went for an officer and told him the story. Some of the money found on Powers corresponded with that which Kennedy told. Kennedy told Powers to be on Saturday night. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Com'ly by Louis Bryant vs. John Murphy, peace warrant. Louis was a witness against Murphy in the large case. Murphy threatened her and she is afraid of him. Murphy was willing to take an oath that he had not seen her since he got out of jail. Bail in $200 for two months.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Dunlap vs. Jane McManus, peace warrant. Mrs. Dunlap is afraid of Jane McManus, because she had been threatening her and raised a disturbance at the above description about him, and also two trunks filled with children's clothing. The trunks evidently belonged to a man named Phillips. Powers told the officers that he got the two checks for two horses and three miles he sold. He had a letter in his pocket dated Philadelphia, and signed Hannah Dubois, who Powers said is his mother, and from the letter the letter probably is. Bail in $200 to appear. Committed.

NOTICES.

A Retail Store of Groceries, Flour, Beans, Tins and Glassware, Self-Sealing Fruit Cans, Tobacco, Cigars, Prime Old Brandies and Wines, Vinegars, House- hold Furnishings, S. H. Hovey & Co. have for sale at 1000 Main street, at Mr. C. Spencer's Auction Rooms, No. 20 Main street.

RETAIL Store of Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Ready-Made Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, &c., at auction. Our numerous readers will please remember that Messrs. S. H. Hovey & Co. have for sale at 1000 Main street, at Mr. C. Spencer's Auction Rooms, No. 20 Main street.

RETAIL Store of Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Ready-Made Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, &c., at auction. Our numerous readers will please remember that Messrs. S. H. Hovey & Co. have for sale at 1000 Main street, at Mr. C. Spencer's Auction Rooms, No. 20 Main street.

RETAIL Store of Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Ready-Made Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, &c., at auction. Our numerous readers will please remember that Messrs. S. H. Hovey & Co. have for sale at 1000 Main street, at Mr. C. Spencer's Auction Rooms, No. 20 Main street.

RETAIL Store of Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Ready-Made Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, &c., at auction. Our numerous readers will please remember that Messrs. S. H. Hovey & Co. have for sale at 1000 Main street, at Mr. C. Spencer's Auction Rooms, No. 20 Main street.

RETAIL Store of Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Ready-Made Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, &c., at auction. Our numerous readers will please remember that Messrs. S. H. Hovey & Co. have for sale at 1000 Main street, at Mr. C. Spencer's Auction Rooms, No. 20 Main street.

RETAIL Store of Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Ready-Made Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, &c., at auction. Our numerous readers will please remember that Messrs. S. H. Hovey & Co. have for sale at 1000 Main street, at Mr. C. Spencer's Auction Rooms, No. 20 Main street.

RETAIL Store of Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Ready-Made Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, &c., at auction. Our numerous readers will please remember that Messrs. S. H. Hovey & Co. have for sale at 1000 Main street, at Mr. C. Spencer's Auction Rooms, No. 20 Main street.

RETAIL Store of Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Ready-Made Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, &c., at auction. Our numerous readers will please remember that Messrs. S. H. Hovey & Co. have for sale at 1000 Main street, at Mr. C. Spencer's Auction Rooms, No. 20 Main street.

RETAIL Store of Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Ready-Made Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, &c., at auction. Our numerous readers will please remember that Messrs. S. H. Hovey & Co. have for sale at 1000 Main street, at Mr. C. Spencer's Auction Rooms, No. 20 Main street.

RETAIL Store of Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Ready-Made Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, &c., at auction. Our numerous readers will please remember that Messrs. S. H. Hovey & Co. have for sale at 1000 Main street, at Mr. C. Spencer's Auction Rooms, No. 20 Main street.

RETAIL Store of Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Ready-Made Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, &c., at auction. Our numerous readers will please remember that Messrs. S. H. Hovey & Co. have for sale at 1000 Main street, at Mr. C. Spencer's Auction Rooms, No. 20 Main street.

RETAIL Store of Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Ready-Made Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, &c., at auction. Our numerous readers will please remember that Messrs. S. H. Hovey & Co. have for sale at 1000 Main street, at Mr. C. Spencer's Auction Rooms, No. 20 Main street.

RETAIL Store of Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Ready-Made Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, &c., at auction. Our numerous readers will please remember that Messrs. S. H. Hovey & Co. have for sale at 1000 Main street, at Mr. C. Spencer's Auction Rooms, No. 20 Main street.

RETAIL Store of Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Ready-Made Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, &c., at auction. Our numerous readers will please remember that Messrs. S. H. Hovey & Co. have for sale at 1000 Main street, at Mr. C. Spencer's Auction Rooms, No. 20 Main street.

RETAIL Store of Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Ready-Made Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, &c., at auction. Our numerous readers will please remember that Messrs. S. H. Hovey & Co. have for sale at 1000 Main street, at Mr. C. Spencer's Auction Rooms, No. 20 Main street.

RETAIL Store of Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Ready-Made Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, &c., at auction. Our numerous readers will please remember that Messrs. S. H. Hovey & Co. have for sale at 1000 Main street, at Mr. C. Spencer's Auction Rooms, No. 20 Main street.

RETAIL Store of Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Ready-Made Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, &c., at auction. Our numerous readers will please remember that Messrs. S. H. Hovey & Co. have for sale at 1000 Main street, at Mr. C. Spencer's Auction Rooms, No. 20 Main street.

RETAIL Store of Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Ready-Made Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, &c., at auction. Our numerous readers will please remember that Messrs. S. H. Hovey & Co. have for sale at 1000 Main street, at Mr. C. Spencer's Auction Rooms, No. 20 Main street.

RETAIL Store of Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Ready-Made Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, &c., at auction. Our numerous readers will please remember that Messrs. S. H. Hovey & Co. have for sale at 1000 Main street, at Mr. C. Spencer's Auction Rooms, No. 20 Main street.

RETAIL Store of Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Ready-Made Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, &c., at auction. Our numerous readers will please remember that Messrs. S. H. Hovey & Co. have for sale at 1000 Main street, at Mr. C. Spencer's Auction Rooms, No. 20 Main street.

RETAIL Store of Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Ready-Made Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, &c., at auction. Our numerous readers will please remember that Messrs. S. H. Hovey & Co. have for sale at 1000 Main street, at Mr. C. Spencer's Auction Rooms, No. 20 Main street.

RETAIL Store of Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Ready-Made Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, &c., at auction. Our numerous readers will please remember that Messrs. S. H. Hovey & Co. have for sale at 1000 Main street, at Mr. C. Spencer's Auction Rooms, No. 20 Main street.

RETAIL Store of Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Ready-Made Clothing, Hats,

